

Rotondo Weirich is an industry leader on precast modular construction projects throughout the United States and abroad. We take a unique and innovative approach to delivering a project and are looking for individuals who possess the right mix of technical competence, entrepreneurial drive and a passion for doing the job right. Our motto and creed is best quality, best price, best way. If you possess the above traits and wish to be a part of our team, please review the opportunity below:

Construction Estimator/Junior Estimator

Company: Rotondo Weirich Enterprises, Inc. (www.rotondoweirich.com)

Department: Estimating

Position Reports to: Chief Estimator

Job Responsibilities:

- Read, understand and apply project specifications to job cost estimate.
- Initiate and maintain constructive relationships with vendors and subcontractors.
- Draft, release and enforce project scopes of work through bidding process.
- Research and scout potential manufacturing locations.
- Prepare quantitative take-off calculations.
- Prepare project submittal documents for client review.
- Maintain communication with client throughout bidding process.
- Develop project schedule.
- Analyze cost implications of various project scenarios and strategies.

Experience Requirements:

- 3+ years in related field.
- General construction and manufacturing knowledge.
- Experience working with General Contractor preferred.
- Precast background helpful.
- B.S. degree preferred.

Additional Skills:

- Strong math and analytical skills.
- Must work well in team and group situations.
- Strong computer skills, particularly MS Excel, are a must.
- Willingness to do some travel (10% – 20%).
- Well organized.
- Ability to prioritize and work under tight deadlines.
- A working knowledge of CADD or Revit and MS Project is a plus.